On behalf of the Congressional Youth Leadership Council, I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your participation in the Spring 1988 National Young Leaders Conference.

The students attending the National Young Leaders Conference are selected for outstanding leadership, citizenship and high academic achievements. I am confident that the knowledge, insights and observations you were able to share with the students will long be remembered.

We at the Council enjoyed working with you on this conference and we hope that you might consider a future invitation to address students attending the National Young Leaders Conference.

Sincerely,
